

TECH SUPPORT RESOURCES IN METRO DETROIT

St. Patrick Senior Center

St. Patrick Senior Center, Detroit's largest health, wellness, and activity hub for seniors aged 55 and older, provides an extensive range of services and programs designed to promote well-being and lifelong learning. The center offers free online digital literacy programs, access to affordable devices, and hands-on training in partnership with Learning Hubs, ensuring seniors can stay connected and engaged in the digital age.

(313) 833-7080

58 Parsons St, Detroit, MI 48201

Scan the QR Code or visit
sites.google.com/stpatsrctr.org/member/member-resources/computers-technology

Northwest Activities Center

The Northwest Activities Center offers a 5-week ADA-accessible course designed to help seniors master computer and internet basics, including email, social media, and web navigation. These affordable classes, available for just $35, aim to build confidence and independence in using technology, empowering seniors to stay connected in today's digital world.

(313) 578-7500

18100 Meyers Rd, Detroit, MI 48235

Scan the QR Code or visit
1degree.org/opp/enroll-in-computer-classes-for-northwest-activities-center-detroit-mi

Connect 313

Connect 313 is dedicated to equipping seniors with the digital literacy skills they need to navigate the online world with confidence and independence. Through courses like Introduction to Computers and Basic Computer Skills, and home-usage guides, seniors can learn to make the most of their internet access and devices. By mastering these essential skills, seniors can unlock opportunities to improve their employability, access social services, stay engaged with their communities, and enjoy technology as a tool for personal wellness and recreation.

(313) 241-7618

Scan the QR Code or visit
connect313.org/digital-literacy-playbook/

ElderTech Academy

ElderTech Academy is an intergenerational program that pairs seniors with tech-savvy high school students to learn mobile technologies. Participants explore creative uses of AI and digital tools, fostering both technological skills and meaningful connections between generations.

Scan the QR Code or visit
eldertechacademy.com/#definition

The Stoudamire Wellness Hub

This 17,000-square-foot community center offers holistic wellness activities, including technology training, fitness classes, and art programs. The Neighborhood Tech Hub provides free internet access and digital literacy training. These resources aim to empower seniors by enhancing their digital skills and overall well-being.

(313) 571-2800

4401 Conner St, Detroit, MI 48215

Scan the QR Code or visit
ecn-detroit.org/the-stoudamire

Senior Digital Connection

The Basic Digital Literacy Skills-Building Courses provides 30-minutes of basic digital literacy training every Thursday from 7 PM to 8 PM. Topics include smartphone functionality, social media, email creation, and online safety. The initiative aims to bridge the digital divide for seniors by providing accessible and practical tech education.

(313) 224-3464

Multiple locations

Scan the QR Code or visit
detroitmi.gov/events/senior-digital-connection-5

Focus: HOPE

Focus: HOPE is dedicated to empowering seniors through workforce development programs, including specialized IT training and certifications. Their 15-week training pathway equips participants with the skills needed for entry-level to middle-skilled Information Technology positions. The program covers essential topics such as Customer Service, Financial Literacy, Technical Support, Server Technology Fundamentals, and Programming Essentials in Python. By offering these resources, Focus: HOPE helps seniors navigate the digital world confidently, enhancing their employability and fostering greater independence in today's technology-driven environment.

(313) 494-5500

1400 Oakman Blvd, Detroit, MI 48238

Scan the QR Code or visit
focushope.edu/programs/job-training/

City of Detroit Digital Equity Tech Hubs

The City of Detroit Digital Equity Tech Hubs provide free Wi-Fi, access to devices like laptops, and essential digital literacy training to support residents in their digital journey. The interactive map on their website makes it easy for seniors to locate the nearest Tech Hub. For additional at-home support, the website also offers a resource page where residents can access affordable high-speed internet, devices, digital literacy tools, and training programs. These support programs provide equitable access to digital resources to empower seniors to stay connected and informed.

(313) 224-3464

Multiple locations

Scan the QR Code or visit
detroitmi.gov/departments/departments-innovation-and-technology/digital-equity-inclusion

Empower My Future

Empower My Future is a Detroit-based nonprofit committed to supporting underserved individuals through education, employment, and personal development. Their programs include digital literacy training for seniors and returning citizens, professional development services, such as resume building and interview preparation, and a forthcoming Emergency Meal Management Program to address food insecurity. They also offer coaching in goal-setting, communication, and spiritual growth through Allen Ministries, helping participants build confidence and community connections.

info@empowermyfuture.org

14461 E. 7 Mile Rd Ste 5226, Detroit, MI 48205

Scan the QR Code or visit
empowermyfuture.org/

Wayne Metropolitan Community Action Agency – Digital Literacy

Wayne Metro provides computer classes to help seniors improve their employability and enjoy using technology in daily life. Their programs are designed to make technology accessible and user-friendly for older adults.

(313) 388-9799

18100 Meyers Rd, Detroit, MI 48235

Scan the QR Code or visit
waynemetro.org/programs/

Detroit Area Agency on Aging

This agency provides a wide range of programs to support healthy aging, including workshops on health, wellness, and technology. DAAA also offers technology-supported home-based primary care and caregiver services. Their goal is to address the social determinants of health and reduce disparities among older adults.

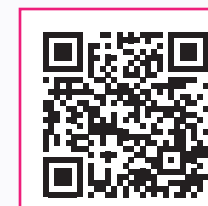

(313) 446-4444

1333 Brewery Park Blvd Suite 200, Detroit, MI 48207

Scan the QR Code or visit
detroitseniorsolution.org/

Detroit Public Library: Technology, Literacy and Career Centers

The library's TLC Centers are computer labs dedicated to helping Detroiters thrive in the digital age. They offer classes on computer basics, Microsoft Office, and mobile devices, as well as one-on-one tech support. These services help seniors build confidence in using technology for personal and professional growth.

(313) 481-1363

5201 Woodward Ave, Detroit, MI 48202

Scan the QR Code or visit
detroitpubliclibrary.org/tlc

SAVVY SENIOR TECH GUIDE

Empowering older adults through technology

TECH SUPPORT IN METRO DETROIT

Cass Community Social Services

Cass Community Social Services is committed to enhancing the quality of life for seniors and adults with developmental disabilities by providing comprehensive support tailored to their needs. As part of its mission, the organization offers access to technology and digital training, helping participants gain valuable skills for personal and professional growth. Alongside these services, Cass Community Social Services provides housing, health services, and job training programs. Their initiatives empower individuals to pursue personal goals—whether social, educational, vocational, or recreational—fostering independence and a sense of community.

(313) 883-2277
11745 Rosa Parks Blvd, Detroit, MI 48206
Scan the QR Code or visit casscommunity.org/life-skills/

Help Hub – Second Ebenezer

Help Hub is a comprehensive outreach initiative by Second Ebenezer Church in Detroit, offering a wide array of services to support individuals and families in need. In partnership with Choose Healthy Life, Help Hub provides food assistance, job readiness training, financial literacy education, and legal support to promote economic stability and empowerment. Seniors benefit from specialized programs focused on exercise and mobility, as well as health screenings to support aging with dignity. This holistic approach reflects the church's mission to uplift the community through physical, emotional, and spiritual care—because “your help is at the Hub.”

(866) 867-4821
14601 Dequindre Rd, Detroit, MI 48212
Scan the QR Code or visit secondebenezer.org/help-hub

ORGANIZATIONS IN HIGHLAND PARK

City of Highland Park Senior Program

City of Highland Park Senior Program offers wellness activities, educational workshops, and technology training to support the health and social needs of seniors. The programs wraparound services and assistance programs aim to create an engaging and supportive environment for older adults to thrive.

(313) 252-0050 Ext 242
12050 Woodward Avenue
Highland Park, Michigan 48203-3578
Scan the QR Code or visit highlandparkmi.gov/services/senior-program/

FREE ONLINE RESOURCES THROUGH MI PUBLIC LIBRARIES

GetSetUp Online Training

Through a partnership with the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, GetSetUp offers a free online learning and discovery platform tailored specifically for older adults. This initiative aims to combat social isolation while keeping seniors mentally, physically, and socially active. Available at no cost to Michiganders aged 50 and up, GetSetUp provides a wide range of classes and activities designed to enrich the lives of older adults. In collaboration with Michigan Public Libraries, seniors can access hands-on support to connect with this valuable online resource and fully benefit from its offerings.

Scan the QR Code or visit getsetup.io/partner/michigan

RESOURCES AT-A-GLANCE

ORGANIZATION	DIGITAL LITERACY TRAINING	TECH DEVICE ACCESS	INTERNET ACCESS	HEALTH AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES	EMPLOYMENT & IT TRAINING
St. Patrick Senior Center	✓ Free online programs & hands-on training	✗	✓ Computer lab access	✓ Health & wellness programs	✓ Workforce Development Entrepreneurial
Detroit Area Agency on Aging	✓ Technology training - YouTube only	✗	✗	✓ Home-based Primary Care	✗
ElderTech Academy	✓ AI & digital tools training	✗	✗	✓ Intergenerational connections	✗
Stoudamire Wellness Hub	✓ Digital literacy training at Tech Hub	✓ Free internet-enabled space	✓ Free internet access at Tech Hub	✓ Fitness & art programs	✗
Senior Digital Connection	✓ Weekly digital literacy courses	✗	✗	✗	✗
Detroit Public Library: TLC Centers	✓ Computer & mobile device classes	✗	✗	✗	✗
City of Detroit Digital Equity Tech Hubs	✓ Digital literacy training	✓ Free access to laptops	✓ Free Wi-Fi	✗	✗
Focus: HOPE	✓ IT certification programs	✗	✗	✗	✓ Workforce development for seniors
Cass Community Social Services	✓ Technology training	✗	✗	✓ Social & wellness support	✓ Job training programs
Northwest Activities Center	✓ 5-week course on internet basics	✗	✗	✗	✗
Wayne Metropolitan Community Action Agency	✓ Computer literacy classes	✗	✗	✗	✓ Employment skills training
Connect 313	✓ Computer skills & internet usage training	✓ Device support	✓ Home internet access support	✗	✗
Empower My Future	✓ Digital literacy for seniors & returning citizens	✗	✗	✓ Emergency Meal Management Program	✓ Resume building, interview prep, career coaching
Help Hub – Second Ebenezer Church	✗	✗	✗	✓ Health screenings, mobility & exercise for seniors	✓ Job readiness & financial literacy
City of Highland Park Senior Program	✓ Technology workshops	✗	✗	✓ Wellness activities	✗
GetSetUp	✓ Free online learning platform	✗	✗	✓ Social engagement programs	✗
AARP	✓ OATS - Online Training	✗	✗	✓ aarp.org	✗

