Detroit Area Agency on Aging - Friends Don't Let Friends Go Hungry

Paul Bridgewater, President and CEO, supports his friends and the Detroit Meals on Wheels Program

WHAT: The Detroit Area Agency on Aging (DAAA) has launched their annual giving campaign, Friends Don't Let Friends Go Hungry. The campaign highlights the role that we as a community play in ensuring that seniors receive nutritious meals every day. There are more than 750 seniors on the waiting list and current clients are in danger of being placed on the waiting list. Paul Bridgewater, President and CEO of DAAA, is passionate about the Detroit Meals on Wheels Program. He recognizes that it is a vital resource that many of our seniors depend on. He ensures that he is involved with every aspect of the program. He will assist with meal deliveries, interacting with the seniors and showing his continued support for the program.

WHEN: Tuesday, August 23, 2016 from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

WHERE: Starting route at 20501 Kentucky St., Detroit, Michigan 48221

WHO: DAAA Meals on Wheels feeds thousands of homebound and disabled seniors residing in the city of Detroit and metropolitan areas including the five Grosse Pointes, Hamtramck, Harper Woods, and Highland Park.

CONTACT: To become a friend or for more information please call (313) 446-4444 ext. 5819
